++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with sunny spells.

Today:
A largely dry day with some sunny spells, especially across southern and eastern counties. The north and west look rather cloudier at times with perhaps a few spots of rain. Feeling warm in the sunshine with mainly light westerly winds. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
A mostly dry and mild night with clear spells, although there will be rather a lot of cloud at times. Freshening southwesterly winds. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Thursday:
Bright morning with, especially in south, sunny spells. However increasing cloud brings outbreaks of rain into northern parts through the afternoon, the south remaining dry until evening. Freshening southwesterly winds. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Dry with some good spells of sunshine through Friday but cooler than recent days. The weekend then looks cloudier and more unsettled with outbreaks of rain, but milder again.
